Applicant acceptance

Important – please read these terms, the Critical Information Summary we give you, the Telstra Mobile Satellite User Guide (“User Guide”) and our “Important Information – Your Rights and Obligations” Booklet (“Booklet”).

The Critical Information Summary contains important information relating to the Plan you have selected including details of the minimum cost of your Plan and the maximum early termination charge you will need to pay if you cancel your Plan early.

Please also read carefully Telstra’s “Protecting Your Privacy” statement which is set out in the Booklet. It summarises how Telstra, its related companies and its dealers will collect, use and disclose your personal information (including for marketing to you) and your rights in relation to accessing and correcting that information. The Booklet contains the Privacy Statement that is current at the date of printing the Booklet. The Privacy Statement is also available at telstra.com.au/privacy/privacy\_statement.html

You agree:

- you have received and read the Critical Information Summary, the User Guide, and the Booklet, which includes a copy of Telstra’s Privacy Statement “Protecting Your Privacy”
- you are responsible for any use of your Telstra service, whether you authorise it or not
- Telstra’s Our Customer Terms apply to all Telstra services relevant to this application. Under Our Customer Terms, we can change the terms and prices of your Plan. The Booklet sets out how we can do this
- we have explained to you that to access emergency services from within Australia, you can call 000 if you have active SIM card in your handset or 112 if you do not have an active SIM card in your handset. Outside of Australia you need to dial the emergency services number for the country you are in
- some calls are not included in your Monthly Call Allowance, including calls to 190, 1800, 13, 12 or directory assistance numbers, international calls, international roaming calls, calls to other numbers outside Australia or calls to non-Telstra mobile satellite services. Your Monthly Call Allowance also can’t be used for charges incurred using a Telstra Mobile (GSM) SIM card (with a telephone number beginning with “04”) in your handset or incurred using a SIM card in a cellular mobile handset or device. If you make these types of calls you will have to pay for them separately
- if you use your service overseas, it won’t come out of your Monthly Call Allowance and you will be charged for international roaming. The charges are set out in your Critical Information Summary
- that if you cancel your Plan early, an early termination charge may apply to your Plan. Your Critical Information Summary includes the details of any early termination charge you may need to pay
- if you have chosen a Mobile repayment Option you may need to pay us an amount upfront in addition to your monthly repayments
- we have explained to you that Telstra Mobile Satellite gives you international roaming access on the Iridium Network from Australia and most overseas countries. Due to the nature of satellite services (in particular that fact that the quality of service can be affected by the environment, surrounds and atmosphere) and the global nature of the Iridium satellite network, which is controlled by a third party, Telstra cannot promise that you will always be able to access Telstra Mobile Satellite from within Australia or overseas. The quality of service available may be affected where there is a narrow view of the sky and by things such as the environment, surrounds and atmosphere

- you may be able to use your Telstra service to purchase goods, services or content from a third party. If you do so, Telstra will debit the charges for the content, goods or services from your account. If you don’t pay Telstra when due, Telstra may cancel your service
- your Telstra Mobile Satellite service includes a number of features including MessageBank Standard, SMS PocketNews and Memo. If you use any of these service features, the terms of that service feature apply and you must pay all applicable charges as set out in Our Customer Terms
- you confirm that we may, subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), in force from time to time:
  - a) disclose information about you and your application (including information contained in any application for additional services and information relating to the conduct of your account) to a credit reporting agency for the purpose of obtaining and maintaining a credit information file about you, and to another credit provider or a collection agent for the purpose of collecting overdue payments relating to credit owed by you and notifying defaults by you; and
  - b) obtain and use information about your creditworthiness (including a consumer or commercial credit report) from a credit reporting agency, credit provider or other business that reports on creditworthiness for the purpose of assessing an application (including the application and any application for additional services) or collecting overdue payments. For the purpose of this clause, “you” and “your” refers to the Account Holder and the Account Holder’s Authorised Signatory (if applicable)
- all information you have provided in this application is correct and that if you are not the Account Holder, you are authorised to sign this form on behalf of the Account Holder.
